

Using communication boards

In this file are some boards that L3 students use to choose songs and programmes. You can print these off or use them on a screen and get your child to point at what they want.

Please encourage and model the use of the 'I want' symbol so it is a pathway.

For instance 'I want Ed Sheeran'.

The good and bad, like and don't like symbols are good to practice communication on preferences.